

You'll Never Walk Alone

Manchester United news: Wayne Rooney backs Ole Gunnar Solskjaer for Red Devils job

22/03/2019

- Solskjaer the only candidate for Manchester United job, says Rooney
- The former Red Devils captain believes the Norwegian manager is the right man for the dugout at Old Trafford
- Wayne Rooney believes Ole Gunnar Solskjaer is the only candidate to take the full-time manager's job at , while also stating he hopes win the Premier League over this season.
- "He is doing a fantastic job and I'm sure he is the only candidate for Manchester United to take that job and it will be great to see him get it and bring some of the players he wants to bring in and keep moving the club forward."
- Solskjaer has revitalised United's form and morale since taking over on a caretaker basis following Jose Mourinho's departure in December.

Transfer news: Pascal Gross flattered by Liverpool links as Brighton showings spark exit talk

19/03/2019

- He told Goal and Spox of the links to those at Anfield: "Of course it is an honour when such rumours arise, but I have not heard anything concrete."
- For now, Gross's focus is locked on events at Brighton.
- "Of course, the national team is a dream of mine, but I have never had contact with national coach Joachim Low," Gross said of his ambition.
- "The change was the right move," said Gross.

Liverpool news: Sadio Mane breaks Premier League record as hot streak continues

17/03/2019

- Mane breaks Premier League record as Liverpool hot streak continues
- The 26-year-old has scored 11 goals in as many game in all competitions to keep the Reds in contention for silverware at the end of the season
- Sadio Mane has now scored the most goals in a Premier League season by a Senegalese player in the history of the competition, after notching his 17th strike of the season against on Sunday.
- They have certainly combined consistently in the last few weeks as every one of Firmino's last seven Premier League assists have been for one of his strike partners, the Brazilian setting up Mane again in west London on Sunday.

- Article continues below
- He has also drawn level with Harry Kane, Pierre-Emerick Aubameyang and his team-mate Mohamed Salah on 17 goals to put him joint second in the Premier League top scorers list.

International football: Jordan Henderson wants Liverpool and England trophies

21/03/2019

- "You always want to go on, you always want to go on and win.
- Henderson vows to win Liverpool and England trophies after near misses
- After several disappointing failures for club and country, the Reds midfielder wants to "put it right" by getting his hands on silverware
- Jordan Henderson is determined to win trophies with and after falling short at crucial moments during recent years.
- "I always feel like that – my whole career I have always wanted to show how good I am and I have always wanted to improve.

Liverpool news: Reds can easily win the Premier League & the Champions League, says Berger

23/03/2019

- "It's great that if Salah is not scoring as much as he did last season there are other players that can score – and that's exactly what the boys need to do."
- I don't see why they can't win the double this season."
- Salah's strike rate of late has caused concern among fans after having had such a prolific campaign last year, but Berger is not overly concerned about the Egyptian's struggles due to squad depth and others stepping up to the plate.
- "I think they can easily win the league and they can win the Champions League too," the 45-year-old told Sky Sports.

Who is Ki-Jana Hoever? Liverpool's young Dutch defender and how he marked Mo Salah in first training session

18/03/2019

- Liverpool knew they had a gem when Hoever marked Salah in first training session
- The Reds have high hopes for their 17-year-old Dutchman, who on Wednesday will be named among the 50 best teenagers in world football
- It didn't take Ki-Jana Hoever long to make an impact on Jurgen Klopp.
- Hoever, a month short of his 17th birthday, held his own against Liverpool's star man.
- Liverpool had seen off healthy competition to land Hoever.

Wayne Rooney says Liverpool winning the Premier League would be a 'nightmare'

24/03/2019

- Wayne Rooney says Liverpool winning the Premier League would be a 'nightmare'
- Rooney says he would not be able to bear a Liverpool title win
- Wayne Rooney says he cannot bear the thought of Liverpool winning the Premier League title this season.
- Liverpool have not won a league title in 29 years and ending that drought this season would allow them to move to 19 title wins in the English top flight, one behind United's record.
- Rooney, who began his career with Liverpool's Merseyside rivals Everton before moving to Manchester United, said he would rather defending champions Manchester City won the league instead.

Patrik Berger says Liverpool well placed to win Premier League and Champions League double

24/03/2019

- Patrik Berger says Liverpool well placed to win Premier League and Champions League double
- 0:35 Former Liverpool midfielder Patrik Berger says he sees no reason why the club can't win the Premier League and Champions League double this season Former Liverpool midfielder Patrik Berger says he sees no reason why the club can't win the Premier League and Champions League double this season

- Former Liverpool hero Patrik Berger believes his old side are well placed to win a Premier League and Champions League double this season.
- 0:59 Virgil van Dijk has proven to be a 'great match from day one' at Liverpool, says former defender Daniel Agger
Virgil van Dijk has proven to be a 'great match from day one' at Liverpool, says former defender Daniel Agger
- Berger believes Liverpool have strength in depth all over the pitch, but pinpointed free-scoring forward Sadio Mane's contribution as vital in helping Liverpool to challenge on two fronts this season.
- 0:46 Porto goalkeeper Iker Casillas insists his team must be respected by Liverpool in their Champions League quarter-final
Porto goalkeeper Iker Casillas insists his team must be respected by Liverpool in their Champions League quarter-final
- "Obviously in the league they have to play every game as a cup final in order to be the champions at the end of the season.

Iker Casillas tells Liverpool to respect Porto in Champions League

24/03/2019

- 0:46 Porto goalkeeper Iker Casillas insists his team must be respected by Liverpool in their Champions League quarter-final
Porto goalkeeper Iker Casillas insists his team must be respected by Liverpool in their Champions League quarter-final
- Liverpool should not underestimate Porto in the Champions League quarter-finals, says the Portuguese club's goalkeeper Iker Casillas.
- Liverpool beat Porto 5-0 on aggregate in the Champions League last season
- "We do believe we can go through to the next stage," Casillas said, after confirming he will end his career at Porto following the end of a new two-and-a-half-year deal.
- "We have a huge respect for Liverpool and every other club involved in the Champions League.

Liverpool arrange Porto ticket price reduction for Champions League quarter-final

24/03/2019

- Liverpool beat Porto 5-0 in the Champions League last 16 last season
- The agreement comes after there were issues between the two clubs regarding ticket prices last season when they met in the last 16 of the Champions League.
- Liverpool take on Porto in the Champions League knockout stages for the second successive season
- Liverpool have successfully negotiated a reduction in ticket prices for their fans travelling to Porto for their Champions League quarter-final next month.
- Porto were set to charge Reds fans €85 for a ticket in the away end of the Estadio do Dragao, but that has now been lowered to €60 (£52) following talks between the two clubs.

Kane: England winning Nations League would beat World Cup run

24/03/2019

- "If we win the Nations League, I think it will top it," Kane said, when asked to compare the tournament with the 2018 World Cup.
- Marc Atkins/Getty Images
- Manchester City, Liverpool, Tottenham and Manchester United players are all competing against each other in the Premier League and Champions League, but any risk of factions that beset previous England regimes is low, according to Kane.
- (2:38)
- England captain Harry Kane has said winning the inaugural UEFA Nations League would surpass last year's run to the World Cup semifinals.

Virgil van Dijk is Player of the Year even if Liverpool don't win the Premier League

24/03/2019

- Even if Liverpool fall short in their chase for the Premier League, they can thank Van Dijk for making them such genuine contenders.
- That run could be ended by another Anfield man, Virgil van Dijk.
- Liverpool were probably a little more exciting last season, but van Dijk is the main reason they are far more effective this time around, thanks to his sense of calm, his authority in defence and his leadership skills.

Liverpool continue their high-wire act, international break comes at right time for Man United

24/03/2019

Man City's road to the quadruple is clear, but do they have the energy to complete a historic season?

24/03/2019

- Manchester United famously won the Premier League, FA Cup and Champions League in 1999, while Liverpool pulled off the league, League Cup and European Cup in 1984.
- They also won a treble of cup competitions -- FA Cup, League Cup and UEFA Cup -- in 2001.
- Champions League
- If City had to choose between competitions over the final two months, it is the Champions League that Guardiola and City's Abu Dhabi hierarchy are most desperate to win.

Barcelona to charge Manchester United fans £102 for ticket at Camp Nou

20/03/2019

- Anderlecht's Uefa charge offers hope for fleeced Liverpool and United fans Read more
- This makes it the most expensive United ticket outside of a final, with the club explaining they will use the extra revenue from the first leg on 10 April to lower the price for their fans travelling to Barcelona on 16 April, bringing down the cost of the ticket to £75.
- Manchester United are to subsidise the £102 cost for a ticket at Barcelona for the second leg of the Champions League quarter-final and have taken a "difficult decision" to charge the same price for Barcelona supporters at Old Trafford.
- The Belgian club raised the cost to €100 for a game in November 2017, with many Bayern fans boycotting the match despite their club subsidising the ticket price to around €70.